CAREHERE NAMED BEST IN BUSINESS

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (May 4, 2009) – CareHere, a leading on-site primary medical and occupational healthcare provider, was named No. 1 “Best in Business” in the 26-100 employee category by the Nashville Business Journal.

The annual Best in Business Awards recognize businesses that exemplify Middle Tennessee’s entrepreneurial spirit. Winners are determined based on revenue growth, business plan and execution, accomplishments and community involvement, among other criteria.

CareHere was founded in 2004 by local entrepreneurs Ernie Clevenger and Ben Baker. Clevenger is a nationally renowned expert in the fields of employee benefits, electronic healthcare transaction standards and insurance legalities.

Previously employed by General Electric and IBM, Baker has more than 18 years of experience in customer service, information technology, quality management and business process improvement.

CareHere specializes in worksite employee health services, including primary health care and a variety of employee wellness programs. In just five years, CareHere has grown from two Tennessee-based clinics to 90 nationwide, with plans for at least 30 more in the works. The company currently has 90 employees and plans to have 120 by year’s end.

Located at 215 Jamestown Park Drive in Brentwood, CareHere specializes in primary medical care, occupational health services and comprehensive on-site laboratory diagnostics. For more information about CareHere, please contact Joc Collignon at 615-210-1621, joc@CareHere.com and visit www.CareHere.com.
