Nashville chamber names Future 50 winners

By Randy McClain
THE TENNESSEAN

A wide variety of businesses have been named winners of the 2009 Nashville Area Chamber of Commerce's Future 50 awards.

The awards, now in their 18th year, are part of a chamber program designed to recognize the 50 fastest growing privately owned companies in the Nashville area. The Tennessean is among sponsors of the event.

To qualify, applicants must be headquartered in Middle Tennessee and have at least 10 full-time employees or $500,000 in annual revenues. They also must anticipate at least a 10-percent growth rate in revenues and employees for the next three years.

The awards will be presented during the annual Future 50 banquet starting at 5:30 p.m. on Wednesday, Sept. 16, at the Renaissance Nashville Hotel. The event honors the winning companies as well as their CEOs, staff members, vendors and other supporters.

Seven of this year's winners will become members of the Future 50 Hall of Fame, recognizing that the companies have made the Future 50 list a total of five times. (Hall of Fame winners are in bold type.)

Applications were reviewed and tabulated by KraftCPAs, according to the chamber's Web site.
